Sustainable Cattle Ranching in Apui, Amazona

Katoomba XIX – Foz do Iguaçu
20 de Março de 2014

Mariano Colini Cenamo
Senior Researcher
mariano@idesam.org.br
Apuí: Economy and Land Use

- 3rd highest deforestation in Amazonas State
- 2nd largest cattle producer in Amazonas
- 50% of GDP comes from cattle ranching
Deforestation in Apuí

![Graph showing deforestation rates from 2000 to 2022. The graph indicates a steady increase in deforestation, with a projection line for the years 2020 to 2022.]
Our approach: sustainable cattle ranching
Goal: silvopastoral production
Social and Environmental Benefits

- 100 farmers
- Regeneration of 500 ha
- Silvopastoral system in 2,000 ha
- Protection of 20,730 ha of forests (REDD+)
- Emissions reduction of 1.1 Million tCO2 over 25 years
Funding Structure

Investor

Forward payment
US$ 1,387 mi

Emission reductions
308,235 tCO2

Line of credit
US$ 1,072 mi

Return
US$ 1,422 mi

Pronaf

Loan
US$ 724 k

Return
US$ 760 k

Idesam

Cooperative
Thank You!

Mariano Colini Cenamo
mariano@idesam.org.br
www.idesam.org.br